A. Section 51 to 60 of the Disaster Management Act, 2005

51. Punishment for obstruction, etc.—Whoever, without reasonable cause —

- (a) obstructs any officer or employee of the Central Government or the State Government, or a person authorised by the National Authority or State Authority or District Authority in the discharge of his functions under this Act; or
- (b) refuses to comply with any direction given by or on behalf of the Central Government or the State Government or the National Executive Committee or the State Executive Committee or the District Authority under this Act, shall on conviction be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine, or with both, and if such obstruction or refusal to comply with directions results in loss of lives or imminent danger thereof, shall on conviction be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years.

52. Punishment for false claim.—Whoever knowingly makes a claim which he knows or has reason to believe to be false for obtaining any relief, assistance, repair, reconstruction or other benefits consequent to disaster from any officer of the Central Government, the State Government, the National Authority, the State Authority or the District Authority, shall, on conviction be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, and also with fine.

53. Punishment for misappropriation of money or materials, etc.—Whoever, being entrusted with any money or materials, or otherwise being, in custody of, or dominion over, any money or goods, meant for providing relief in any threatening disaster situation or disaster, misappropriates or appropriates for his own use or disposes of such money or materials or any part thereof or wilfully compels any other person so to do, shall on conviction be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, and also with fine.

54. Punishment for false warning.—Whoever makes or circulates a false alarm or warning as to disaster or its severity or magnitude, leading to panic, shall on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to one year or with fine.

55. Offences by Departments of the Government.—(1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by any Department of the Government, the head of the Department shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly unless he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a Department of the Government and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any officer, other than the head of the Department, such officer shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

56. Failure of officer in duty or his connivance at the contravention of the provisions of this Act.—Any officer, on whom any duty has been imposed by or under this Act and who ceases or refuses to perform or withdraws himself from the duties of his office shall, unless he has obtained the express written permission of his official superior or has other lawful excuse for so doing, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine.

57. Penalty for contravention of any order regarding requisitioning.—If any person contravenes any order made under section 65, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine or with both.

58. Offence by companies.—(1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company or body corporate, every person who at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company, for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the contravention and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment provided in this Act, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, and it is proved that the offence was committed with the consent or connivance of or is attributable to any neglect on the part of any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also, be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section—

- (a) “company” means anybody corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and
- (b) “director”, in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

59. Previous sanction for prosecution.—No prosecution for offences punishable under sections 55 and 56 shall be instituted except with the previous sanction of the Central Government or the State Government, as the case may be, or of any officer authorised in this behalf, by general or special order, by such Government.

60. Cognizance of offences.—No court shall take cognizance of an offence under this Act except on a complaint made by—

- (a) the National Authority, the State Authority, the Central Government, the State Government, the District Authority or any other authority or officer authorised in this behalf by that Authority or Government, as the case may be; or
- (b) any person who has given notice of not less than thirty days in the manner prescribed, of the alleged offence and his intention to make a complaint to the National Authority, the State Authority, the Central Government, the State Government, the District Authority or any other authority or officer authorised as aforesaid.

B. Section 188 in the Indian Penal Code, 1860

188. Disobedience to order duly promulgated by public servant.—Whoever, knowing that, by an order promulgated by a public servant lawfully empowered to promulgate such order, he is directed to abstain from a certain act, or to take certain order with certain property in his possession or under his management, disobeys such direction, shall, if such disobedience causes or tends to cause obstruction, annoyance or injury, or risk of obstruction, annoyance or injury, to any person lawfully employed, be punished with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with both; and if such disobedience causes or tends to cause danger to human life, health or safety, or causes or tends to cause a riot or affray, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

Explanation.—It is not necessary that the offender should intend to produce harm, or contemplate his disobedience as likely to produce harm. It is sufficient that he knows of the order which he disobeys, and that his disobedience produces, or is likely to produce, harm.

Illustration

Principal Secretary (Revenue) to the Government of Himachal Pradesh

GOVERNMENT OF HIMACHAL PRADESH
DISASTER MANAGEMENT CELL, DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE

No. Rev(DMC)(F)4-2/2000/SEC

dated: 29 April, 2020

ORDER

Whereas the Government of India has decided that Novel Corona Virus Disease (COVID-19) - a highly contagious disease, (declared to be pandemic by the World Health Organization) be treated as a notified disaster and it is expedient to take preventive measures for the purpose of containing and mitigating the alarming situation arising out of its spread throughout the country in the last few weeks in a rapid manner, endangering the lives of all citizens;

And Whereas it is an established fact that the COVID-19 spreads to a person through contact with another person who is carrying the virus (with or without symptoms) and therefore the most effective measure for the prevention of the spread of this deadly disease is curtailment of social/community contacts and quarantine of persons whose contact and travel history is not easily established;

And Whereas the Government of Himachal Pradesh has permitted the people of Himachal Pradesh residing in other States to return to their homes within Himachal Pradesh and a large number of people have returned to H.P. or will return in future and have gone or will go to their homes spread over different Gram Panchayats as well as Urban areas of the State;

And whereas, to contain the spread of COVID-19, it is necessary to keep asymptomatic persons under home/institutional quarantine and surveillance and to segregate and isolate symptomatic persons for testing and treatment as per Standard Operating Protocol prescribed by the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India;

And whereas, it is necessary to handle the influx of large number of such people from outside the State to prevent spread of COVID-19 pandemic and surveillance needs to be strengthened through monitoring and strict home/institutional quarantine;

And whereas, as per Section 22(h) of the Disaster Management Act, 2005, the State Executive Committee constituted under the said Act is empowered to give directions to any Department of the State Government or any other Authority or Body in the State regarding actions to be taken in response to any threatening disaster situation or disaster;

NOW THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred under the said provisions of the Disaster Management Act, 2005; the State Government hereby issues the following directions to the District Magistrates, Heads of Urban

Local Bodies/all councilors, Pradhans of all Gram Panchayats/Ward Members in the State to effectively deal with the situation in the following manner:-

1. The District Magistrates in exercise of power vested in them vide Himachal Pradesh Epidemic Disease (COVID-19) (Amendment) Regulations, 2020 shall declare all Heads of Urban Local Bodies (ULBs), Councilors of ULBs, Pradhans of all Gram Panchayats and Ward Members of all Gram Panchayats as 'Surveillance Personnel' under the Regulations ibid.
2. Every Gram Panchayat/Urban Local Body (ULB) will have a Registration Facility to facilitate return of the people. Family members or relatives of such people who have returned to the State will register with the facility at the concerned Gram Panchayat or Urban Local Body immediately on his/her/their arrival. Heads of ULB/Pradhan Gram Panchayat may also register such names suo-moto, upon receiving information from any other source. Getting registered on arrival is mandatory and any violation in this regard shall invite action under the Regulation ibid.
3. Gram Panchayat Secretary or the Panchayat Sahayak will be the Nodal Officer to register such person. SDM in consultation with Head of the concerned ULB will identify a Nodal Officer for one or a cluster of wards to be known a Ward Nodal Officer.

4. The Head of ULBs/Pradhans of all Gram Panchayats shall put necessary arrangements in place duly involving Councilors of ULBs/Ward Members of Gram Panchayats to check and ensure that any person arriving in their respective jurisdictions from outside the state has been registered. It shall primarily be the duty of the Councilor/Ward Member to inform the Head of ULB/Pradhan of Gram Panchayat, who shall have the particulars entered in the register/software, developed/prescribed by the State Government Health department for this purpose, and shall also duly inform the concerned ASHA Worker/Local Health Worker immediately or maximum within 24 hours of such arrival in the Ward. The details of the information to be recorded for the purpose of registration is at Annexure A.
5. Every person on return from outside H.P. shall have to compulsorily stay in home or the ULB/Panchayat level quarantine facility for fourteen days, observing the guidelines issued by the Health and Family Welfare Department. Any violation in this regard shall invite action.

6. In case persons are allowed home quarantine, proper sticker must be affixed on the front of such house. The format of this sticker shall be as indicated at Annexure B.
7. The ASHA/Health worker shall mandatorily visit the house of all such persons on receipt of information from the concerned Head of ULB/Councilor/Pradhan/Ward Member. She/he will ascertain whether such house has sufficient accommodation available for home quarantine. If not, she/he will immediately inform the Head of ULB/Pradhan Gram Panchayat concerned, who shall proceed to institutionally quarantine such person under intimation to the concerned SDM.
8. The persons who jump home quarantine and other needy persons, who do not have sufficient accommodation at their homes for home quarantine, shall be kept in Institutional Quarantine Centres. The Head of ULB/Gram Panchayat shall, in consultation with local BDO, identify and establish Institutional Quarantine Centre(s) within their respective jurisdiction and they shall make necessary provisions of lodging, food, water and sanitation for the quarantined persons at the identified quarantine centres during the quarantine period, if need for use of such quarantine centres arises. The expenditure on provision of temporary accommodation, food, drinking water, sanitation and medical care etc. for the people in quarantine camps (other than home quarantine) shall be met out of State Disaster Response Fund. Two or more Panchayats can have a joint facility if they so determine and get it approved from the local BDO.

9. Health check up of the quarantined persons, including screening for COVID-19 and sampling of the symptomatic cases, shall be conducted in coordination with concerned health officials, who shall be immediately informed about such arrivals by Heads of ULBs/Pradhans of Gram Panchayats and ASHA worker.
10. In case any person is tested COVID-19 positive, he/she will be immediately shifted to the designated care facility/ hospital for treatment.
11. The Councilor/Ward Member of the ULB/Gram Panchayat shall keep a watch on persons (s) kept in home quarantine in his ward and shall ensure that such persons do not flout guidelines in this regard. Any violation of these guidelines shall be brought into the notice of the Head of ULB/Pradhan Gram Panchayat immediately for further necessary action. The Pradhan on the receipt of such information shall forthwith inform SDM or BDO in this regard for initiating appropriate action under relevant Acts, Rules and Regulations.
12. Anyone found violating the instructions of the Head of ULB/Pradhan of the Gram Panchayat regarding quarantine protocols and guidelines shall be penalized under the relevant provisions of the Disaster Management Act, 2005, the Epidemic Disease Act, 1897 read with the H.P. COVID-19 Regulations, 2020 and provisions of any other relevant Act.

13. The above directions shall be observed in letter and spirit by all the Surveillance Personnel. Any deviation therefrom shall attract penal action under Section 188, 269, 270 and 271 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 read with Section 56 of the Disaster Management Act, 2005. In addition to the above, it is clarified that any deviation in compliance specifically by the Surveillance Personnel shall tantamount to misconduct within the meaning of Section 146 of Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 and Section 273 of the H.P. Municipal Act, 1994.
14. Any person, who has been directed to observe quarantine, if found violating any direction in this regard, shall be liable to be punished under Section 188, 269, 270 and 271 of IPC apart from any other action deemed appropriate by the local SDMA/BDO.
15. Further, whosoever is found to deter the surveillance personnel in the discharge of his public duty in any manner shall be liable to be punished under Section 51 of the Disaster Management Act, 2005 read with Section 353 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860.

Keeping in view any peculiar emergent ground situation, the District Magistrate concerned shall be at liberty to issue supplemental directions/instructions in consonance with this order.

Chief Secretary to the Government of H.P.
